MEDITA

HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP SCHOOL

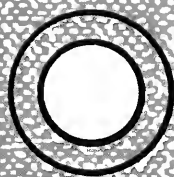

DEDICATION

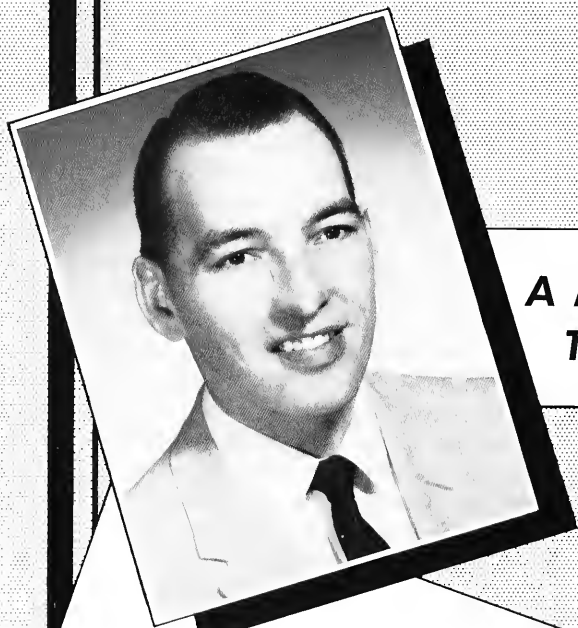

They have understood our problems, assisted us with patience of steel, listened to our complaints with an admirable smile, inspired us with confidence, encouraged us when we were disheartened, and enhanced our chance for success.

Their determined effort to make us satisfied and happy shall always be remembered as one of our most precious high school memories. Words can't express our appreciation for their various contributions; but to show how much we love, honor, and respect them, the 1959 MEDITA staff dedicates the '59 MEDITA to the parents of the senior class.

ADMINISTRATION

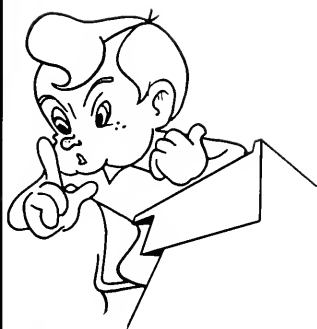

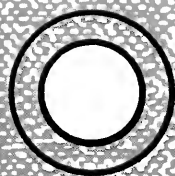

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

With a feeling of pride we look back on another successful school year full of hard work, happy moments, and a few disheartening experiences. We hope this book will help you remember the school year of 1958-59 as one of the most rewarding of your scholastic career.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the class of '59, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to our beloved underclassmen the following possessions:

I, Larry Adams, will my ability to get along with the girls to Richard Baker and Carl Rittenhouse.

I, Dennis Andrew, will my easy-going manner to Jerry Wolf.

I, Duane Beady, will my even temper to Charles Bradburn and Larry West. Now, don't fight over it.

I, Scarlett Clark, will to Sharon Smith my red hair, and may she keep it.

I, Judith Ann Cone, will to Linda Irick my ability for reckless driving.

I, Dale Davis, will my ability to be nominated for the 100 Club to Rex Carroll and Raymond Streit. The secret is, don't be on the starting five.

I, Mack Day, will my continuous smile to Larry Litte. A smile goes a long, long way, Larry.

I, Joan Gearhart, will to Linda Brown my long hair. Don't forget to wash it once a week.

I, Roger Hall, will my ability to park on the wrong side of the school building to Bill Smith and Jim Huffman.

I, Robert Hartle, will my ability to get through school without studying to Michael Lancaster.

I, Larry Herrick, will my mastery of the slow driving technique to Terry Yake and Tom Redding. Watch out! There's a cop!

I, Burma Gayle Houser, will to Donna Lee and Marti Kohr my squeaky voice. Don't forget to oil it.

I, Ruth Miriam Keplinger, will to Alberta Wires, Barbara Votrie, and Joy Oswalt, my ability to have two boyfriends at the same time. Please be careful!

I, Linda Jean Lahr, will to Pat Tobin and Louise Weller my cheerfulness and leading ability.

I, Jerry McLaughlin, will my doubtful method of getting attention to James Barker. Throw gum, paper, or anything!

I, Sharon Ann Minton, will to Priscilla Dorman and Judy Herzog my ability to skip school on test days and not get caught.

I, Mike Ott, will my beautiful head of hair to Wayne Kreiger. It isn't a permanent either, Wayne.

I, Terry Penn, will the position of first chair in clarinet to Larry Wine and John Kreiger. You don't really want it, do you?

I, Betty Rudy, will to Pam Gamble and Carole Hartle my ability to get along with teachers.

I, Jerry Settlemyre, will my ability to work diligently and graduate with flying colors to Charles Gooley. Don't try, Chuck.

I, Susanna Shelhamer, will to Beverly Vought and Susie Wilhelm my cheerleading ability. Take good care of it!

I, Nancy Smyser, will to Juanita Sills, Nancy Sands and Marcella Reifert my height. Please share it equally.

I, Loretta Slusser, will to Edith Hefner and Carolyn Bunker my ability to always chew gum and get caught.

I, Larry Steele, will the job of directing traffic at ballgames to James Riggars. Don't let them run over you, Jim.

I, Michael Teusch, will my green thumb to Ernest Fisher. Take good care of those plants, Ernest.

I, Sandy Van Meter, will to Mary Smith my ability to sleep in Government and not get caught and still receive "B" for a grade.

I, Paul Wall, will my black book that is full of girls' telephone numbers to William Giles. Wow! What Beauts, Bill.

I, Harold Weaver, will the position of first flute to Anne Hildebrand. Practice, practice, practice, Anne!

I, Nancy Wires, will to Rodna Landis my artistic ability.

I, Ned Yordy, will my ability to skip school to Jerry Campbell and Melvin Dinius. Watch out, Mr. Mertz will catch you.

We, Rebecca Jo Hummer and Patricia Louise Vickery, will our singing ability to Michelle Colbert and Marilyn Lancaster. Don't forget to practice eight days a week.

PROPHECY

We three members of the graduating class of 1960 predict that in 1975 the class of 1959 will be the Commanders of Outer Space.

In the year 1975 we are planning a trip with Larry Herrick, who is blasting off from Cape Canaveral in his customized rocket ship with Professor Larry Steele, who is going to test the food value of the moon's green cheese, and his secretary, Burma Houser, who is disgusted with all her men here on Earth and is making a big play for the man in the moon.

As we pull in at the first Earth space station, put up by architect Terry Penn and Professor Mack Day, we find Sharon Minton "rocket-hopping" at the Space Inn.

We hear the roar of a spaceship and see Coach DeWayne Beady and his assistant coach, Jerry Settlemyre, with their center, Dale Davis, going to practice with their Martian squad.

Tuning in to the news broadcast on our space radio, we hear news editor Jerry McLaughlin reporting that Sue Shelhamer, who enrolled in the Venus No-More College, is finally catching up with her classmates after failing in Miss Nancy Wires' physical education class for the last six years.

FLASH. . . It has just been reported that Larry Adams has broken his leg after falling from the Big Dipper while trying to repair it!

Also in the news we hear of the first rocket ship accident of space history, which occurred between Lori Slusser and Betty Rudy. (Leave it to the women!)

The newscast is interrupted and we hear, "Are you small? If you are, we have just the thing for you. President Bob Hartle of Little Midgets' Wear, on the planet Pluto, is making a gigantic cut in prices on clothes. Since midgets' clothes are so small, the gigantic cut in price is almost nothing."

As we continue on toward the planet Saturn, we find Joan Gearhart polishing its rings. Coming into Saturn's atmosphere, we see ex-President Harold Weaver congratulating President Mike Teusch after losing the presidency to Mike.

Continuing on to Venus, we see Ned Yordy teaching ballet to Venus of Milo. Looking around the Planet of Love, we see Sandy VanMeter, Judy Cone, and Pat Vickery chasing Commander Roger Hall around the Intercontinental Statue of Cupid, who is not cooperating.

Traveling on to Jupiter, we find Scarlett Clark as a chorus girl entertaining the men in Dennis Andrew's Blue Moon Casino.

Going on our way, we see Mike Ott, the famous trapper, attempting to trap the "Big Bear" constellation.

While waiting for the attendant, Ruth Keplinger, to refuel our rocket ship on the planet Mercury, we attend a style show where Becky Hummer is modeling her latest creation called "The Whippet."

Heading home, we travel past the Milky Way and visit with Linda Lahr and Nancy Smyser, who are polishing the stars.

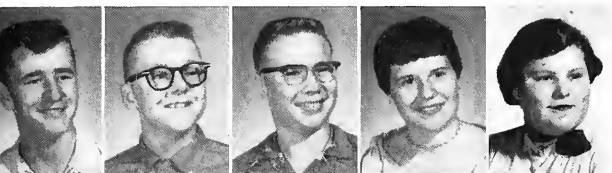

On arriving back home, we see the sponsors of the class of '59, Mrs. Helen Kreiger and Mr. Paul Schock, sitting at their desks wishing they could be with the Commanders of Outer Space.
